Colors of Feelings...Feelings of Colors

The author, Linda M. Pierre, loves photography because she sees God's unique perspective in nature wherever she looks. Linda captures the moments in writing through poetry from the feelings God granted her in her heart. Linda enjoyed combining the book with her poetry, photography, and son Scott's illustrations. She hopes you enjoy this unique glimpse into her heart.

*Dear God
Thank you for feeding my Heart with words to share
With my family, friends, and others
God Bless*

Linda M Pierre was born in Seattle, Washington, and she moved to Minnesota when she was just six years old. In 1967 she graduated from Frank B. Kellogg High School and then worked for the State of Minnesota for five years. She ran a rubbish, snow plowing, and rock-hauling business with her husband for over forty years. More recently, she has worked for the Stillwater School District. Married for forty-four years, she has two sons and four grandchildren. She enjoys writing poetry, photography, movies, and traveling. She currently resides in Stillwater, Minnesota.
